GMA BOARD MEETS; AUTHORIZES NEW DOVE AWARD CATEGORIES

LOS ANGELES, Calif.--During meetings here last week, the Board of Directors of the Nashville-based Gospel Music Association voted to add eight new awards to its annual Dove Awards. Beginning with the 20th Annual Dove Awards in 1989, a new category, "Recorded Song of the Year" will be awarded for "Metal," "Rock," "Contemporary," "Inspirational," "Southern Gospel," "Country," "Contemporary Black Gospel" and "Traditional Black Gospel."

Stephen Speer, Chairman of GMA's Awards and Criteria Committee, said the new awards were created as a result of the GMA's recognition of its role as a broad-based industry association and its desire to be "inclusive" of various musical styles rather than "exclusive."

This new category does not affect "Song of the Year," which is typically won by an inspirational song. While "Song of the Year" has 10 finalists, the "Recorded Song of the Year" categories will have five each. The Dove for "Recorded Song of the Year" will be awarded to the artist and the songwriter.

The new awards correspond to current "Album of the Year" categories for the various music styles. (The Association added the "Metal," "Rock" and "Country" categories last year.) To be eligible for "Recorded Song of the Year," a song must have been released during the eligibility year, which is December 1, 1987 through October 31, 1988. (At its spring meeting, the GMA Board changed the end of the eligibility year from November 30 to October 31 to allow more time for the entry screening process. Thus the eligibility period this year is only 11 months.)

The GMA Board also voted on several procedural changes in the awards process. While GMA Professional Members were previously allowed to vote in all of the "Album of the Year" categories, they may now vote in a maximum of five of the eight. This rule also applies to "Recorded Song of the Year." Associate Members, who previously voted only for "Artist of the Year" and the "Horizon Award," may now vote on the final ballot for "Song of the Year."

Rules were also changed regarding "Song of the Year." Previously, songs could be re-nominated year after year unless they actually won the award in that category. Under the new rules, a song that appears as a finalist for "Song of the Year" for two consecutive years will be ineligible the next year. Eligibility returns the fourth year.

Finally, the Association has changed the name of the "Horizon Award" to "New Artist of the Year."

The Dove Awards will be presented April 13, 1989 in Nashville. Only Professional and Associate members of the Gospel Music Association are eligible to vote. Those who are presently not members of GMA can vote in the 1989 awards if a membership application and dues are received in the GMA office by mid-November. CHRISTIAN ARTISTS MUSIC SEMINAR PROVIDES A "SPIRITUAL RETREAT"

ESTES PARK, Colo.--The 14th Annual Christian Artists Music Seminar in the Rockies, held here earlier this month, was deemed a success by Jim Chaffee, vice president and general manager of Christian Artists Corp., which sponsors the seminar. With a combined industry and registrant attendance of just under 1,500, Chaffee characterized it as "one of our top years."

For the second year in a row, an industry retreat preceded the seminar for the purpose of bringing a spiritual focus to the balance of the week. This year's speaker, Church on the Way pastor Jack Hayford, was well-received. It was generally felt that last year's seminar, largely because of the retreat which preceded it, marked a return to a more spiritual orientation for the music seminar. "This year was another step in that direction," Chaffee confirmed. "Spiritually, it has to be there."

Christian Artists president and founder Cam Floria says that the more spiritual direction was really the concept behind the seminar in the first place: "My original vision was multi-faceted. Our main responsibility was to find a way to bring everybody together; to find needs and to meet them." Floria says he wants the Estes Park event to be "the spiritual retreat for the music industry."

"We are a service organization, and our role is to provide something more for the industry than they get out of day-to-day business," explained Chaffee. Referring to two of the week's most powerful speakers, he said: "Jack Hafer helped us recognize what our call is; Brennan Manning helped remind us of the sacrifice Christ made for us."

A new aspect of the Music Seminar this year was a "Music and Missions" day. Representatives from national organizations like Compassion International, World Vision, Youth With A Mission and others presented seminars to help the registrants and

GREENWOOD FORMS NEW MULTI-SERVICE AGENCY

NASHVILLE, Tenn.--Malcolm Greenwood, former director of Blanton/Harrell Tour Management, Inc., has announced the acquisition of the Blanton/Harrell-owned booking agency and the formation of his own, multi-service organization. The Greenwood Group, Inc. is now in full operation and will provide booking, promotion, and personal management for artists involved in the music industry.

Greenwood joined the Blanton/Harrell management firm in 1984 to oversee the creation of Blanton/Harrell Tour Management, a company responsible for organizing and directing concert tours. In addition to handling international tours for their lead acts, Amy Grant and Michael W. Smith, Greenwood extended the tour management services in 1987 to include artists outside of the Blanton/Harrell roster such as David Meece. Also in 1987, Greenwood expanded the division to include individual concert booking services.

The Greenwood Group, Inc. will include three companies. Tour Management Booking, a Christian artist booking agency; Greenwood Productions, concert/event promotion and tour producing/directing; and Greenwood Management, providing personal management for recording artists.

The artist roster for Tour Management Booking includes David Meece, Morgan Cryar, Billy Sprague, Kim Hill, New Song, Renee Garcia and First Call. Greenwood Productions is currently producing several dates for the Amy Grant/Michael W. Smith/Gary Chapman "Lead me On" tour. Greenwood Management currently represents Reunion artist Kim Hill.

Dan Harrell, president of Blanton/Harrell, Inc., commented, "Malcolm Greenwood became part of our organization at a critical period. At that time, an organization did not exist that understood both our Christian market base and the effort involved in putting together a large-scale, full-production national tour. Malcolm more than understood these two areas; he became an expert in them. We are pleased to see him move forward with the success that he found while we developed that type of company within the Blanton/Harrell framework."

The Greenwood Group, Inc. is located at 2909 Poston Ave., Nashville, TN 37203. Phone 615/320-1986 for Tour Management Booking; 615/329-0200 for Greenwood Productions and Greenwood Management.

OUT AND ABOUT...

* The Amy Grant/Michael W. Smith/Gary Chapman "Lead Me On" tour is in England at the moment. They played at Greenbelt this past weekend. A few Tennesseans got a preview of the show when the tour went to Chattanooga and Jackson for "rehearsal concerts" a few days before leaving for England. From our observation, it's shaping up to be a pretty hot concert! By the way, although we haven't heard an official announcement, the tour is likely to be sponsored by Tretorn, the folks that make those yuppie tennies that are giving Reebok a run for their money...

* Carman gave away a 41-inch Sony widescreen TV at CBA in conjunction with his new video release. The winners were Tim and Allison Fillmore of The Cornerstone Bookstore in Bishop, CA. The drawing was held at the Zondervan booth...

* Frontline Records, which specializes in rock and other non-traditional music forms, says it has had the most successful sales period in its history. Releases from Jon Gibson, Bloodgood, Idle Cure, Mark Farner and Shout have all exceeded their pre-release sales projections. Frontline currently has five albums on the CCM "Top Albums" chart...

* Wayne Watson has been at Houston's Rivendell Recorders wrapping up his follow-up to his hugely successful, Dove-winning Watercolour Ponies album. It's due out this fall. Rivendell, by the way, is adding a second 24-track recorder to give the facility 48-track capability...

* The newest Whitecross album is underway at Grand Slam in East Orange, NJ. Lead guitarist Rex Carroll and Grand Slam's Joey Powers are producing. The album, Hammer and Nail, is due out in early October and will be supported by the "Hammer and Nail" tour. The band showcased at the War Memorial Auditorium in Nashville just over a week ago...

* For those who wonder what kinds of lasting effects Christian music might have on audiences, here's a story for you. Twelve years ago, the group Truth performed a concert which was attended by a young man named David Summerral, who began a relationship with Christ at that concert. Summerral went on to become a preacher and now pastors a church in the Philippines which has a membership of more than 13,000! Now, at the encouragement of Summerral, Roger Breland and Truth are heading to the Philippines to perform three concerts a day (!) during their three-week stay. The group will spend another three weeks in Singapore, Malaysia and Australia...

* They love 'em in England, but the Technos have never had a record released in the U.S. The Technos are really Bev Sage and Steve Fairnie of Bristol, England. They're at Grand Slam attempting to mix "British creativity with some straightforward American rock 'n' roll. It's due out next month on Refuge...

* If you have had trouble reaching people at Word this past week or so, it's because the company is in the process of moving to Dallas. The official move date is Sept. 16. New phone will be 214/556-1900...

PETRA CUTS WILL BE FIRST COMMERCIAL CASSETTE SINGLE

HOUSTON, Texas--Star Song records has announced that the forthcoming Petra release, On Fire!, which is scheduled to ship the first week of October, will also spawn the Christian music industry's first commercial cassette single. The single contains two songs from the On Fire! album and will be sold through a "sneak preview" pre-sale poster and counter display developed by Star Song.

The counter display holds 10 cassette singles. Attached to the display is a coupon pad which customers can use to reserve a copy of the album. The display comes with a detachable header card so that, if the cassette singles sell-out, the card can be removed and used with the sign-up cards as a free-standing, pre-sale counter unit.

Star Song and CCM are also co-sponsoring a writing contest to be held in conjunction with the release of the new album. Entrants may write a 1,500-word story that can address topics such as personal testimonies of victory over sin, fictional accounts of spiritual warfare or accounts of how an aspect of Petra's ministry has affected someone's life. The Grand Prize winner will receive a computer with word processing software, will meet the members of Petra and will have their story published in CCM.

NEW "HOW TO" CASSETTES FROM HOME SWEET HOME

JERUSALEM COVER UNDER FIRE

ALLENTOWN, Penn.--It appears that once again the Refuge Music Group has come under fire for the cover of one of its albums. The cover in question this time is Jerusalem's Dancing on the Head of the Serpent, which depicts a man's boot stomping on the head of a serpent-type figure. According to Refuge, it symbolizes Christ's command to take dominion over Satan.

"Either a store finds the cover a great statement of faith, likes it and feels it will help the sale of the record or they find it offensive and refuse to rack it," says Tim Himmelwright, Refuge marketing director. He indicates that some stores "end up sending it back or, in some cases, the store sells it from under the counter."

The Refuge Music Group staunchly supports the cover and the statement it makes. "We tried to change the cover several times to make it more pleasing to the eye by putting a real rock-looking shot of the band on the front of the album jacket, but it was not in keeping with the theme of the recording," states Refuge president Ray Nenow.

Refuge says that a major retail chain accepted the release because they considered it to be Scriptural.

industry understand what opportunities are available in the mission field. "The focus on music and missions helped remind us that there's a whole world out there which needs Christ and that we as Christian artists really need to be on the forefront of making that happen," said Chaffee. "I felt that it [Music and Missions Day] was a very good start. It was a way to present the need to Christian artists."

In addition to the more than 200 seminars for various levels of the Christian music industry, approximately 425 registrants entered the solo vocal competitions. The following is a list of the first-place winners in each category:
VOCAL I: David Phelps

VOCAL II: Linda Tait
VOCAL III: Steve Darmody
VOCAL IV: Vicki Musser

First-place winners in the other performance categories included:

PIANO: Greg Wiggins
INSTRUMENTAL: Varetta Heidelberg
SMALL GROUP: Melodie & Lemartt
ENSEMBLE: Voices
CHOIR: Christianaires

Grand Prize winner in the "Vocal" category was Linda Tait while the Grand Prize winner in "Instrumental" was Varetta Heidelberg.

In the songwriting competition, "In Remembrance" by Robin Cain won first-place in the "MOR/Inspirational" category; "It's the Power of His Love" by Lemartt M. Holman II was the winner in the "Contemporary" category; Robert J. Renert's "Not Guilty" took the "Hymns/Congregational" category and "I'm Not That Kind of Guy" by Scott Anderson finished first in the "Children's/Novelty" category. "It's the Power of His Love" was the Grand Prize winner in the songwriting field.

RADIOACTIVITY

LOUISVILLE, Ky.--Currently holding the record for this year's longest promotion is WJIE's "885 Hours of Unbelievable Giveaways" involving almost 500 prizes including, concert tickets, music cassettes, and books. The promo began August 8 and will continue till October 14. It actually ties together four area concerts during the sixty-eight day period, two radio specials, a book promotion, and four in-house promotions.

SPEARFISH, S.D.--As part of the "Carry the Light" campaign, KSLT-FM recently had a torch run of their own. Much like an abbreviated version of the original international--YWAM coordinated--torch-carry, the station sponsored a run which traversed the station's coverage area and more. Specifically, torch-bearing runners originating from four major communities located 200 miles, North, East, South, and West of Spearfish, converged for the opening of KSLT-sponsored Hills Alive '88 and "to claim the land for Jesus Christ."

PICK OF THE WEEK:

The Imperials, Free the Fire (Myrrh)

There's one thing you can always count on the Imps for: change. While this release does not significantly depart from the direction of This Year's Model, there are differences. The impeccable production of Bill Schnee brings a more subdued, classy feel to the project. The arrangements are more sophisticated than the edgier approach of Model. This should help bring some adults back into the Imps fold. The lyrics have a more definite spiritual direction than Model, but will probably still not please old-time fans. The title track (penned by the Omartians), is sure to be an Imps classic. "The Boss" (by Jimmie Lee), is a touching song about the love we need to show to our children. This is a good album. But overall, nothing stands out. It's hard to come away from this release really loving it or really hating it.

The Gaither Vocal Band, Wings (StarSong)

GVB's ever-changing members never seem to adversely affect their quality releases. The new guy this time is ex-Imperial and new DaySpring solo artist, Jim Murray. GVB fills the void left by Imperials since the release of Let the Wind Blow. These guys do what the Imps used to do so well--bridge the gap between traditional and contemporary styles. The youngin' in the group, Mike English, provides the contemporary vocal edge, while the elder statesmen add beautiful harmonies. White Heart member and noted Nashville producer Billy Smiley does an expert production job with the diversity of music styles (pop, MOR, black gospel and southern gospel).

Jerusalem, Dancing on the Head of the Serpent (Refuge)

In the early 80's, Sweden's premier Christian band Jerusalem, was a forerunner to the current deluge of holy headbangers. With a five year recording hiatus, the band is back and strong as ever. Two of those five years were spent in Bible college to better prepare them for the serious impact they are making in Europe's rock industry. I wouldn't go as far as saying this is heavy metal--how about hard rock with a metal edge (a la Aerosmith). The lyrics are well-crafted gospel treatises which don't rely on worn-out metal cliches. Unfortunately the Christian culture's Ostrich Syndrome (read: "Head in the Sand") strikes again with cries berating the album cover. So be prepared to explain it or hide it.

Vernessa Mitchell, Higher Ground (Command)

Mitchell's second release shows her for the accomplished writer, singer, producer and arranger she is. This former member of Motown's High Inergy exhibits her vocal versatility with a range from crystal clear, straight-ahead performance to gutsy gospel deliveries. The production value makes this release a stand-out by fully complimenting Mitchell's abilities.

White Cross, Love on the Line (Pure Metal)

This special release EP features two new songs (recorded since the band's 1987 debut), and two from that debut release. The two new songs are in sharp contrast to the band's Ratt-like pop-metal style. They shed those pop sensibilities for a hard rock roots, bluesy sound reminiscent of Led Zep, The Doors, and The Who. This change highlights Rex Carroll's phenomenal abilities as lead guitarist. Even though this is a radical change for the band, it's a refreshing one for the industry (with almost nobody performing this style). So be sure to inform fans that one, there are only four songs on this album (same songs on both sides); two, there are only two new songs; and three, those new songs don't sound like the old ones.

Allen T.D. Wiggins, One Way (Command)

This young instrumentalist's debut album is definitely a fresh, new experience in Christian music. In the tradition of Grover Washington Jr., Wiggins' soulful sax expertly covers a wide range of music styles--jazz, soul, blues, pop and gospel. The songs feature excellent arrangements of traditional gospel songs and hymns. The two original vocal numbers ("My Reward" and the title cut) are influenced by Earth, Wind & Fire and the Winans, respectively. Put this in the hands of your jazz officinados (Koinonia, Jazz Praise and Justo Almaria) for a special treat.

PICKS OF THE WEEK:

Michael Card, "Know You in the Now" (Sparrow)

Solid follow-up to "That's What Faith Must Be," continues in Card's thoughtful lyrical approach and musical integrity. Earnest vocal pleads the Lord's manifestation in the here and now as dynamic string arrangements and playful key selections flesh out a backdrop.

Mark Farner, "Give Me the Works," b/w "Airborne Ranger" (Frontline) Christian radio has welcomed the "new" Mark Farner with open arms ("Isn't It Amazing" - #2/AC; "Come to Jesus" - #2/Rock), and these cuts should secure his place at the table. The vulnerable honesty of "Give Me the Works" is undeniably appealing, and the stellar acoustic guitar support from Phil Keaggy certainly doesn't hurt. On both cuts the lyrical craftsmanship is a bit wanting, but with Farner, that's not the point.

Renee Garcia, "Perfection," b/w "A Different World" (Reunion) A Different World is debuted to radio with two fine cuts extending the urban sensibilities alluded to on Garcia's '87 freshman effort, Living in the Vertical. The smooth and satisfying soundtrack of "Perfection" is anchored throughout by a soothing saxophone weave as the artist surrenders all, while the flip-side title-cut lays down a nice groove with guitar funk and attitude.

Twila Paris, "Every Heart That is Breaking" (Star Song) 12" Slow-burner moves along at a gentle cadence, but will leave deep impressions with your listeners. Serving as the debut from Paris' forthcoming For Every Heart release, this cut delivers a message of comfort to the lonely and broken-hearted with sobering depth and sincerity.

First Call, "Back to His Heart" (DaySpring)

After the "O Sifuni Mungu" African adventure, the vocal group takes a stylistic half-step back towards the Christian mainstream with this latest single release. "Back to His Heart" shows enough musical originality to retain a uniqueness, while allowing each of the members a solo spotlight.

Jon Gibson, "Lost Inside of You" (Frontline)

Mr. Gibson and labelmate Crystal Lewis pair up on this biggest of big ballads. Lyrically speaks of walking the road to spiritual maturity, as a building synth orientation intensifies.

Glad, "Depending on Your Love" (Benson)

More instrumentalessness on this third cut from The Acapella Project. Spright and upbeat attitude in a lyrical testimonial to the Lord's reliability.

Steve Green, "What are the Words" (Sparrow)

Expansive string section backs a refreshing declaration of how God is revealed through His creation--written by Michael W. Smith and Gloria Gaither.

Idle Cure, "How Long," b/w "Frontline" (Frontline)

Idle Cure premiere's their Tough Love with a good cut, and a great cut. A-side's building ballad is a worthy track showing a synth/acoustic guitar pairing, but "Frontline" is the pick. Power rock with an evangelistic message. Big guitar punch, shout-it-out vocals and a resounding beat.

Sandi Patti, "In Heaven's Eyes" (Word) CD

Third single release from Patti's latest is a signature inspirational ballad. Uplifting message of encouragement propelled by a string/synth backtrack.

White Heart, "Somewhere in Between," b/w "Urban Renewal" (Sparrow)

Two issue-oriented cuts make for the boy's latest Emergency Broadcast singles. "Somewhere in Between" incorporates an impressionistic synth-track in an impassioned look at divorce, as the hard kickin' "Urban Renewal" proffers a "working faith" and sports a searing guitar solo.

Send singles for review to: Scott Dwinell, CCM, P.O. Box 6300, Laguna Hills, CA 92654.

The CCM airplay charts are compiled from reports obtained by telephone from selected Christian radio stations in the U.S. The Rock, Inspirational, and Contemporary Hits charts reflect songs receiving the most airplay on reporting stations for the two-week period ending August 22, 1988. ("*" = Re-entry, "--" = New Entry, First Column = Weeks on Chart, Second Column = Position 2 Weeks Ago, Third Column = Position This Week.)

The Video Airplay chart is compiled from reports solicited from selected Christian video shows and is primarily based on viewer requests for the four-week period ending August 23, 1988. ("MO" = Months on Chart, "LM" = Position Last Month, "TM" = Position This Month.)

CHART WATCH

Adult Contemporary

"His Eyes" is receiving by far the most airplay in the country right now, reported by 68 out of a possible 72 stations. It is nearly 150 points ahead of "Did I Forget to Say?", which picked up only 59 reports. Sparrow's "New Music Summer" must be working like a charm, because the artists they are promoting are #'s 1, 2, 3 and 6 on this chart. Biggest mover of the week is Rick Cua's "For the Love of God," which is up 15 to #25. Trace Balin's "Only for You" moves up 12 to #14. Highest debut is posted by Michael W. Smith, whose "Pray for Me" from I 2 (EYE) comes in at #17. Interestingly, tour-mate Amy Grant is the next-highest debut with the title track from her #1 Lead Me On album. Larry Bryant and First Call also debut in the top 30.

Inspirational

The momentum of "His Eyes" on AC has spilled over into Inspirational as the song trades places with last chart's top song, Steve Green's "Find Us Faithful." Coming on strong is Wayne Watson, up seven to #3. "Rise Again" stalls at #6, indicating that this remade version of one of Christian music's all-time classics may not have the legs to go all the way one more time. Highest debut on this chart is Rich Mullins' "Awesome God." This one has the potential to hit the top. Songs from the new albums by Twila Paris and Michael W. Smith at #1 and #2 in Most Active...

Contemporary Hits

Margaret Becker and Tim Miner continue to block Amy Grant's way to the top, although "Lead Me On" is still gaining and has the advantage of only being on the chart for the second time. However, Rick Cua's "For the Love of God" debuts at #4 and should be watched. Other debuts include Rich Mullins, Russ Taff, Mylon & Broken Heart, Kim Hill and Bryan Duncan. All deserving records, no doubt, but with the natural volatility of this chart and the huge crop of new singles just getting out, watch for continued rapid turnover.

Rock

With Margaret Becker topping this chart as well as CHR, Sparrow holds the #1 spot in every format! They also hold #2 in every format except rock, where Stryper drops back from #1. Shout has the highest debut, but Rick Cua is the biggest mover with "Hard Times" moving up 11 positions to #8. Russ Taff, Barren Cross and Jerusalem also debut this time. The new rock cut from Michael W. Smith, "Help You Find Your Way," hasn't charted yet, but would be #26 on the rock chart this time. Of note is the fact that the Most Played LPs chart is unchanged from two weeks ago.
