Word Suspends Promotion, Sale of Warnke Product

WORD, INC. ISSUED an "announcement" last Thursday [8/6] which relates it is "suspending" its business relationship with Mike Warnke, a Word artist on the DaySpring label.

The Word announcement reads, in part, "We continue to support and acknowledge the gospel truths communicated on Warnke's recordings and in his concerts.

"In light of recent accusations (as reported in the Lexington Herald-Leader, Wednesday, July 29, 1992) concerning the business ethics and financial integrity of Warnke Ministries, Word, Inc. again met with Warnke. After reviewing the reported information, Mike Warnke and Word, Inc. have jointly determined to suspend the sale and promotion of Warnke products and allow full return privileges pending the resolution of questions surrounding this matter."

Warnke's latest release, Full Speed Ahead, debuts on the Top Albums chart (page seven) this month at number 22.

The announcement goes on to say that "Word, Inc. is grieved by the initial and ongoing allegations directed toward Mike Warnke. We are concerned for our friend and brother in Christ. However, there are still many questions yet to be answered. At this juncture, we trust and believe Mike Warnke will respond comprehensively to these media allegations."

The Lexington Herald-Leader article Word refers to was headlined "IRS targets finances of Mercer comedian's ministry" and carried the sub-head "Nearly $1 million goes to salaries for 4." The entire piece, which consists of three articles, reveals the ministry took in a little over $2 million in 1991 and paid Warnke $303,840, ex-wife and still board member Rose Warnke $291,840 and Rose's brother and ministry president, Neale Hall, $214,000. Over the last seven years, the three have "received $3.5 million on top of royalties, housing and cars" and raises have averaged $30-40 thousand each per year. The article contrasts that with the Billy Graham organization which raises $65 million annually and pays Graham, who receives no speaking fees or book royalties, a $69,150 salary.

According to the article, the IRS has revoked the tax exempt status and the Warnkes have appealed. The article lists many other questionable practices such as a $600,000 parsonage rented by the ministry from its owners, Rose and her mother. It states that, while the ministry claims to help thousands of people, it gave only $900 to charities last year, yet "While taking nearly $300,000 in salary and driving a luxury car, Rose Warnke says the ministry cannot afford to hire enough people to staff its national, toll-free crisis line more than eight hours a day, Monday through Friday."

One of the articles is based on interviews with former employees which refute the ministry's claims of helping as many people as it says and call Mike, Rose and Neale Hall "rude, vulgar, greedy and dishonest." The former employees, who Warnke calls disgruntled, accuse him of taking cash from offerings and said that "often when they counted money from the shows, they found envelopes that had been torn open and emptied of money." The same article mentions that Mike Warnke has had four spouses and Rose has had five and that the Ichthus festival refused to let Warnke speak, although he was paid his entire $5,000 fee. The CCM Update has learned that Warnke was refused the stage at Jesus Northwest, as well, but he did host a night at the

A seven-page letter, sent by promoter Tim Landis, (Creation Festival) to Word President Roland Lundy and copied to some in the industry, says that the information he received (Word's original statement and Warnke's 12-page expanded statement) "in no way even came close to answering the charges in the article."

Landis further addresses Lundy by stating, "Mike claims that he is accountable in his career to you and others. As a public figure, he needs to respond directly to each charge and provide corroborating witnesses and physical evidence to refute these charges."

Warnke was contacted by CCM magazine and felt he could not amass the evidence and testimony needed to refute the charges by the publication's deadline, but intends to in a future interview. CCM ends its recap of the Warnke story in its upcoming September issue by raising what its terms "troubling" questions: "Why hasn't anyone asked for verification of [Warnke's] testimony before now? Is the Christian public (including the Christian press...) so uncritical and gullible that apparent deceptions such as this are possible?" ■

ANNOUNCING

THE WORD DEBUT FROM
RAY BOLTZ SEASONS CHANGE
AND THE SINGLE "SAVING GRACE."

TURNING HEADS AT RETAIL
AND RADIO . . . EVERYWHERE.

Out & About...

Petra Splits Up; "Make That Heavy For You, Cindy?"; Skaggs and Friends on Russian TV; Driscoll & Dems

- DaySpring's Petra split up to promote the band's new Back Stage Pass video in five different cities last Saturday [8/8]. But they were scheduled to get back together by conference call, on the air, across the nation. Louie Weaver was on KYMS/Anaheim from Sonshine Book & Gifts. John Schlitt was on WCBW/St. Louis from One Way Bookstore. John Lawry was on KSLR/San Antonio from The Shepherd Shop. Ronny Cates was on KCMS/Seattle from Evangel Bookstore and guess who got to stay home? The boss, Bob Hartman, was on WAYM/Nashville from His Excellence.
- The day before, Petra performed in Mexico, debuting Petra Praise, a Spanish version of Unseen Power.
- CHR Reporters have their own "Cindy" to flip over as Word's Cindy Morgan lands atop the CHR chart during Olympic week with a perfect score of 100 (all Reporters on the song and in heavy rotation). It's only been done once before in the history of the CCM charts by (you knew this, didn't you?) Cindy Morgan [Update 4/20].
- Warner Alliance's Steve Camp will join Word's Bruce Carroll, Phil Driscoll, Ray Boltz, Paul Overstreet, and Ricky Skaggs on a prime-time, one-hour Russian television special filmed September 4 in Geneva IL in front of a hoped-for 10,000 fans. The proceeds will go for the expense of filming and sending the special to Russia.
- Word's Phil Driscoll performed twice on the opening night of the Democratic National Convention. On CNN, he was not identified after performing "America The Beautiful" until the coverage went to a remote interview with Vice Presidential-hopeful Al Gore who, before answering the reporter's question, made a point of thanking Phil, "a good friend and fellow Tennessean." Both Word and Driscoll's office received some irate phone calls the next day or so, mostly having to do with the Democrats' pro-choice stance. Since then, Driscoll's office reports the calls have been positive about his wanting to "have a Christian message in that atmosphere," and they've even been contacted by some jazz publications who weren't aware of Phil.

- Star Song announced at its staff meeting last Monday [8/3] that its acquisition by Thomas Nelson has been called off. The companies were reportedly about a week from the final agreement with the price all worked out when Star Song, "getting ready to walk down aisle," decided they just didn't want to get married. Star Song CEO Stan Moser called Nelson head Sam Moore "tremendous" and "an honorable guy" and says they "didn't burn any bridges."
- Warner Alliance, at one time a leading contender in the race to sign Carman, has officially withdrawn.
- Refuting a published report to the contrary, Russ Taff told The CCM Update he has not signed with Jimmy Bowen's Liberty Records or anybody else.
- (Cue music; fade in) As we left you last time [Update 7/13], the producers had heard Benson's Angelo & Veronica, flipped, and dumped Warner Alliance's Vince Ebo as the singer of the song on As The World Turns. Then the writer woke up from his dream and found out that meanwhile, back at the ranch, Ebo, a loyal member of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists, was really the one who nixed the deal at the last hour because the gig was non-union.
- A couple of members of Myrrh's Holy Soldier, Andy Robbins and Jamie Cramer went to Japan to promote Last Tain through its Japanese distributors MJM and Pony Canyon Records. The headbangers were interviewed by Bass Magazine and Young Guitar Magazine and appeared on Space Shower, Japan's MTV-style network.

- Warner Alliance's Take 6 just finished the group's "Where Do The Children Play?" Music and Arts Camp in Liberty TN. Seventeen junior high-age students from Washington, Atlanta, New Orleans, New York and Nashville were selected because of their talent, willingness and "some significant 'beating of the odds.'"
- Word's Buddy Greene performed the first Christian concert in Ethiopia since the fall of communism.
- After the big Chapman/Ashton/Out of the Grey concert at CBA, catalogue sales increased for the artists at Joshua's by a whopping 350%.
- Sandi Patti has been making the news, unfortunately so, with reports of her pending divorce. There was an article in the National Enquirer and two in USA Today. The USA Today stories both ended with "no chance of reconciliation" from Sandi's side, although the second was headlined "Patti's husband hopes to reconcile" and quoted John Helvering throughout. The Enquirer piece quoted John's father saying Sandi kicked his son in the teeth and calling her "heartless." ■

THE CCM UPDATE ALBUM REVIEWS

Noteworthy

Maia Amada Maia Amada DaySpring
This highly-touted New Yorker is more than worthy of her advance billing. Amada is not only a classic song stylist, in the manner of Dionne Warwick, but she's at home with Latin-flavored dance licks (à la Estefan), the jazzier riffs of Anita Baker and the gospel voicings of Tramaine. But Amada is not copy-cat; her dusky voice manages to project with power and quiver with emotion, often within a few lines. The blessing of Epic Records could make this lady a major star; she'll certainly turn Christian radio on its (often tin) ear.

Kim Boyce Facts of Love Warner Alliance

Boyce, who has sometimes been criticized for singing "cookie-cutter" dance music, makes great strides here as a vocalist, songwriter, and savvy selector of cover material. Much of the music still carries a heavy dance flavor, but the inconsequential lyrics of the past have given way to topical tracks dealing with issues such as mental and physical abuse and several introspective looks beneath the surface of relationships. Boyce's fan base will hear enough familiar sounds to be pleased, while Kim's newfound intensity should increase her audience.

Rick Cua The Way Love Is Reunion
Hard to believe KOO-AH has been releasing energetic, solidly-written and performed Christian albums for ten years now! The Way Love Is finds Cua moving in a more adult direction lyrically, much as Charlie Peacock did with his Love Life album. Cua does an empathetic and thoroughly realistic job of exploring the ups and downs of modern family/marriage relationships and how the glue of Christ's love holds them together. Cua's usual extensive touring and support at radio will make this top-notch title a winner.

Crystal Lewis Remember Metro One
Crystal and husband Brian Ray have finally hit on the perfect combination of songs (mostly penned by the couple) and musicians, and the artist's voice has begun to reach a maturity which belies her 22 years. Lewis, who in the past seemed to change musical styles like socks, has artfully integrated jazz, R & B and black gospel influences to produce her most powerful recording to date. Besides anticipated excitement at radio, Crystal will be debuting August 15 on cable TV's Nickelodeon channel in a musical/variety series called Roundhouse for which she will also sing the theme. All this exposure should make Remember a smash.

Urban Hope Urban Hope Hosanna!
Integrity Music, known for its more subdued, conservative efforts, takes a giant step toward increasing its already large consumer base with the release of this exciting project. Urban Hope features R&B-oriented tracks geared to fans of the urban contemporary sound of Commissioned and the Winans clan. The vocalists and musicians are outstanding, and the label is to be commended for targeting an area sorely lacking quality praise music.

Also Received

The Brave Battle Cries Pakaderm
Stryper has been silent for awhile, so in step California neighbors The Brave. Although this young combo occasionally features a bit of Stryper's bombast, they're more akin to leaner arena rockers such as Bon Jovi or Def Leppard. Lead singer James Salters is capable of scaling the heights, but the band is much stronger when featuring a layered vocal harmony sound and the duel guitar attack of Stayce Roberts and Freddie Tierra. An impressive debut from a mature young outfit.

Deliverance Stay of Execution Intense
Although the focus remains on Jimmy Brown's no-holds-barred lyrics and aggressive vocal attack, personnel changes and a new producer (pop meister Terry Taylor) have resulted in the most accessible album to date for this highly-respected veteran metal group. The disc includes the video re-mix of "Weapons Of Our Warfare" (featured MTV); that, and a cover of Daniel Amos' classic "Horrendous Disc" are just two of many highlights on this album.

Gillum Way That I Am Spotted Dog
Gillum performs a kind of "hip-hop lite," aimed at the Beverly Hills 90210 crowd who will probably perceive it to be real rap. His rhymes are frequently clever, and he delivers them with an understated authority. But the rhythm tracks, which often sound as if they were sampled from pots and pans, keep the record from having any real weight. High marks for looks and personality, but points off for not coming at least as hard as DC TALK.

JAG Fire In The Temple Benson
Although The Only World In Town was a concept album, JAG's new release is actually more cohesive. The band is reminiscent of Genesis in spots, mixing thoughtful pop tunes with harder-edged rock material and occasional acoustic spotlights such as "Land of the Living" and "Long Lost Friend" (a duet with former Restless Heart vocalist Larry Stewart). JAG's first two albums netted the group four top 25 singles; Fire burns with an intensity which should increase JAG's impact.

★ Vigilantes of Love Killing Floor Fingerprint

Vigilantes' singer/songwriter Bill Mallonee is the latest in a long string of artists, (John Prine, Bruce Springsteen) to whom the title "next Dylan" has been applied. Mallonee performs his roots rock with a punk earthiness which lends his songs an urgency often missing from acoustic music. But it's Mallonee's insightful lyrics which make this disc truly outstanding. In Bill's world, love is "a train wreck inside my head," and he confronts grief by realizing "sometimes God's grace won't let you look upon what you can't bear to see." Production by Mark Heard and Peter Buck (R.E.M.) is crisp and lean, the perfect compliment to Mallonee's broadsides.

VIDEO

Petra Backstage Pass Word Visual Audio

During the opening sequence, when John Schlitt and Bob Hartman stumble through a thank-you message for supporters of Beyond Belief, you have to wonder if some rockers just aren't cut out for this video thing. After all, Schlitt aside, none of the other Petra lads are especially photogenic. But the group's "every-dude" appearance is part of what has kept it so popular for over twenty years. Director Stephen Yake doesn't depart from the expected candid footage and off-stage interview approach. But each of the band members has obviously given a lot of thought to his role in the group, and the group's role in Christian music. Those thoughts are well-articulated, never as poignantly as when the men reflect on road life apart from their families. You're treated to seven new clips, including the vividly colorful "Sight Unseen" and the technical marvel "Who's On The Lord's Side," produced by the wizards at NFL Films. Unseen Power has already yielded three number ones for Petra, and the group's Beyond Belief Video Album remains a top seller—expect the same from this outstanding package.

THE CCM UPDATE SINGLE REVIEWS

Picks

Maia Amada "Love Never Fails" DaySpring

They say that the best things come in small packages. That's certainly true of Maia. Producer Shane Keister had his work cut out for him coming up with tracks that could live up to her vocals, but performed admirably. If you're looking for the quintessential adult-oriented power ballad, you've found it in the debut offering from this amazing new talent.

Incidentally, this song is slated for release to mainstream radio on Epic Records. AC/CHR/INSP

Angelo & Veronica "You Were My Last Hope" Benson

Another husband and wife team (is this a trend, or what?) make their impressive debut with this radio-friendly mid-tempo. It's quickly apparent that this pair has had some serious musical training. The harmonies are tight and their voices compliment each other quite nicely. While comparisons to BeBe & CeCe are likely, Angelo and Veronica will quickly carve out their own niche and identity, and become a regular feature on your playlist. AC/INSP

Ray Boltz "Saving Grace" Word

I can see PD's and MD's eyebrows being raised all over the country as the first few bars of this tune fly out of the speakers. Yes, that's right, this really is Ray Boltz. Check out some of the players: Mark Hammond on drums, Jackie Street on bass and Jerry McPherson on guitars. Oh yeah, then there's Phil Naish on keyboards and in charge of production. If this is indicative of the rest of Ray's Seasons Change project, his first with Word, we can look forward to some great radio. AC/CHR

Steve Green "Grace By Which I Stand" Sparrow

Another impressive offering from the Keith Green tribute project. Steve's vocal is packed with emotion worthy of the lyrical content of the song. This is a refreshing sound for Steve... quite different from most of his songs of-late. Brown Bannister's production and choice of instrumentation is impeccable, as always. In my opinion, one of the best selections from the No Compromise project.

Lavine Hudson "Keep Your Mind" Sparrow

If you're looking for music that helps your station keep pace with your mainstream counterparts, this one will do it. Hudson's vocals are all over the stratosphere and the tracks (à la Rhett Lawrence) compete with the big guns. This is sure to be a rapid climber at CHR outlets.

Pray For Rain "Let Go" Vireo

This Minneapolis-based three piece brings with it not only a cool name, but also some great new sounds. Two mixes of this tune are available. Normally I lean toward hotter mixes, but I found the softer AC radio mix to be more appealing on this cut. AC/INSP

Pray For Rain "Do You Want To Know Love?"

The promotional "hype" letter was right when it described this new band's music as "the sixties meets the nineties." This song demands your attention from the first note and doesn't let go until the final guitar lick has faded. While rock programmers' initial reactions may be mixed, a few plays will confirm that this is a solid tune for rock and dayparted CHR airplay. ROCK/CHR

Shout "When Secrets Cry Out Loud" Frontline

Tamplin's soaring lead vocal spearheads a sonic barrage of guitars and layered vocals. Metalheads will blow their Pioneer three-ways right out through the back window on this one. METAL/ROCK

Noteworthy

Lisa Bevill "Falling Off The Face Of The Earth" Vireo

An infectious bass line and deceptively non-chalant vocal lead you gently through a laid-back verse until a brief but raucous bridge snaps you out of your state of hypnosis. An AC mix is provided, but the lyrics are really more suited to CHR outlets. CHR/AC

Michael Card "So Many Books" Sparrow

More of what you've come to expect from Michael: solid lyric content wrapped in a flawless acoustic package. At just 2:42, it's almost over before it begins, but it should wear well in rotation. The guitar work in the bridge may be too hot for most Inspirational stations, but will work well at ACs and even some CHRs. AC/INSP

Undercover "Man, Oh Man" BAI

This is a scorcher! If you like horns, bass and lots of electric guitar, this song's for you. (Did they get that cover from one of the episodes of the old Star Trek?) ROCK

Also Received

David Baroni "Took Me Out Of Egypt" Diadem

This mass-appeal song will make a risk-free addition to any light AC or Inspirational station's playlist. The production is hip enough to keep it well within the boundaries of contemporary stations, but will work well at more conservative outlets as well. INSP/AC

The CCM Update Charts

The CCM Update airplay charts are compiled from programming information submitted by selected Christian radio stations (Reporters) in the United States. The "Contemporary Christian Music," "Adult Contemporary," "Inspirational" and "CHR" charts are based on song rotation patterns as reported by programmers. Reporters are weighted 1.00 unless otherwise noted. Bonus points are awarded according to a formula based on their Average Weekly Cume and the number of dayparts they program music. The "Contemporary Christian Music" chart combines all Reporters to the "Adult Contemporary," "Inspirational" and "CHR" charts. The "Rock" and "Metal" charts are based on chart listings and playlists submitted by stations, shows and syndicated programs. WO (Weeks On) shows how long the song has been on that chart; LW (Last Week) or LC (Last Chart) shows the song's previous position. A bullet represents gain in total points over previous period. "Pts" represents the percentage of total possible points a song has received. ("Heavy" rotation or #1 position from every Reporter would result in 100 points.) "Chg" is the gain or loss (-) in points from the previous chart. "%On" represents the percentage of Reporters reporting the song. "%A" is the percentage of Reporters adding the song this time. "%H" "%M" "%L" shows the percentage of Reporters who have the song in "Heavy," "Medium" or "Light" rotations. The "Highest Debut" is the song that enters that chart at the highest position. The "Highest Gainer" is the non-debut song that has gained the most points on that chart.

CINDY MORGAN

for the second single in a row

#1 song 100 points

"It's Gonna Be Heaven"

The perfect 100 point song. A record that may be equaled but never broken.
