Benson Music Signs Distribution Agreement with Liberty Records

BENSON MUSIC GROUP has signed an exclusive distribution deal with Liberty Records, which will enable Benson, the largest independently held Christian record company and music publisher, to expand its marketing and sales efforts in the mainstream arena.

The deal, which is structured similarly to the one between Benson and CGI Records for black gospel product, includes marketing and promotion considerations for projects picked up by Liberty for mainstream distribution. Decisions regarding the selection of artists and their respective projects to be included in the deal will be "mutually agreed upon by both parties," according to Benson President Jerry Park, and be made on a case-by-case basis.

The first artists to have albums distributed under the agreement include ex-Stryper lead singer Michael Sweet, five-time Grammy winner Larnelle Harris, Christian rock veterans DeGarmo & Key, instrumental pianist Dino, New Artist of the Year Dove nominee Pam Thum and two-time Dove-winning Group of the Year 4HIM. Other Benson artists may be announced in the future as part of the distribution deal. The agreement is for Benson label artists only and is not inclusive of Benson-distributed product.

America's Christian Music Awards Announces Nominees

LAST WEEK, Steve Gilreath Productions announced the nominees for the first America's Christian Music Awards, a fan-voted awards show to be held on September 11 from 8-10 p.m. EST and set to air live on The Family Channel from Walt Disney World's Theater of the Stars at MGM/Disney Studios in Orlando, Florida.

Nominations for Male & Female Artist, Group/Duo Pop and Rock, CD Pop and Rock, and Long Form Video came from a hybrid chart created from The CCM Update radio charts and CCM magazine monthly album and video sales charts. All charts were tracked from May 1, 1993-May 30, 1994. Favorite Short Form Video nominees came from a poll of local video show producers. The Favorite Local Video Show and Radio Station categories will be open ended for voters to fill in their choice. Favorite Live Concert nominees came from a poll of NCPR promoters. In order to be nominated for Favorite New Artist, both a CD and video single must have been released between May 1, 1993 and May 30, 1994, and the artist must have had significant radio chart activity.

The awards ceremony will be a "people's choice" awards show with fans able to vote for their favorite artists through "900" phone numbers that will be advertised on The Family Channel. The number and a ballot will also appear in ads in USA Today, People magazine, CCM magazine, major market Sunday newspapers and various other media. Everyone who submits a ballot will be entered in a Disney trip give-away and callers of the five dollar per call "900" number voting line will win a free CD of songs from the nominated artists as well as a free Disney Vacation Planner video and discount travel coupons for Disney.

Hosts for the telecast are DC Talk and

- Nashville Mayor Phil Bredesen joined artists Amy Grant, CeCe Winans, Mark O'Connor and Bela Fleck, along with representatives of Leadership Music to announce a new local awards program to be called the Nammies (Nashville Music Awards), which will be held January 18, 1995 at the newly renovated Ryman Auditorium. Awards will be given in over 30 categories including Outstanding Contemporary Christian Album and Outstanding Gospel Album. Profits from the awards show, which will be open to the public, will benefit Leadership Music (an organization promoting discussion, networking and positive relationships in the entertainment industry), and the Arts Magnet program at Wharton Middle School in north Nashville. For more information, call 615/291-4200....
- Star Song Publishing Group officially announced its plans to release At the Foot of Heaven, a book of prose and poetry by DC Talk member Kevin Max Smith, with accompanying artwork by recording/visual artist Jimmy Abegg. The first 25,000 copies of the book will also include a collector's edition premium audio book featuring Smith's words and music....
- Youth for Christ and The Inspirational Network (INSP) have agreed to produce and televise YFC's "DC/LA '94 True Love Waits National Celebration" live from the Mall in Washington, D.C. The rally, which takes place on July 29, will feature live performances by Steven Curtis Chapman, Petra, and DeGarmo & Key, and will be broadcast from 6-9:30 p.m. Eastern Time....

Erratum

Zach Glickman informed us that though Russ Taff has been singing with the Gaither Vocal Band as was reported in last week's Update (6/13), he was asked to fill in for Michael English, not Terry Franklin as we reported. Glickman tells us that Russ has had so much fun with the GVB that he has committed to stay through the end of '94 and discussions are ongoing for '95....

Benson/Liberty

Liberty Records President Jimmy Bowen and Benson owner Wes Farrell, the president and CEO, Music Entertainment Group (MEG), consider the union a vital step toward the growth of gospel music in mainstream pop culture.

Noted Farrell, "Our alliance with Jimmy Bowen and Liberty will not only further enhance the Benson reputation and position in the contemporary Christian market but also increase the exposure of our artists to the general marketplace. The strength of Liberty's talented marketing and sales force, combined with our own knowledgeable and expert staff, will help accelerate the already extraordinary growth of interest in Christian music."

"Contemporary Christian music is one of the fastest growing fields in music today,"

Bowen commented. "We have been quite successful in bringing a progressive approach to new and established forms of music. We look forward to doing the same with Benson's superb contemporary Christian roster of talent."

"For nearly a century, we've been committed to bringing Christian music into the mainstream," said Benson President Jerry Park. "Our efforts in that regard will be greatly enhanced by this new partnership. Benson is enjoying its most successful and prosperous period of growth in the company's history. The association with Liberty will help take Benson to still another level of success."

CEMA, an affiliate of Liberty and one of the six major record distributors in the country, will be charged with placing the product in the general marketplace, beginning in July. ■

ALBUM REVIEWS

Top Ten

Steven Curtis Chapman Heaven in the Real World Sparrow

Gospel music's own "Stevie wonder" leans to the electric side of his country pop base with delightful results. The shift not only brings out the best in his singing but also the "real world" in his lyrics (song titles like "King of the Jungle" and "Dancing With the Dinosaur" should raise some eyebrows). The arrangements are also daring in spots, with Sir Steven occasionally being nudged along by a horn section, black gospel backing vocals and the hot guitar of Dann Huff (the pair positively rock out on "Facts are Facts"). With an extended tour planned for the fall, look for astronomical sales.

Pam Thum Faithful Benson

Thum had quite an auspicious '93, garnering a Dove nomination for Best New Artist and landing one #1 single and four Top 10s from her self-titled debut. On Faithful, the all-star production team of Bill Cuomo and Robert White Johnson is joined by Dove Producer of the Year nominee Paul Mills (Phillips, Craig & Dean). Brimming with self-confidence, Thum belts out a mixed bag of ballads, pop delights and soulful numbers—all bolstered by "A-list" musicians who know how not to get in the way of this wonderful talent.

On the Chart

Greg Long Cross My Heart Myrrh

As the old show biz saying goes, Long was "born in a suitcase;" the son of a traveling evangelist, Greg saw most of the States from a bus before he finished elementary school. Long brings the lessons those miles and years taught to bear on his major label debut. He favors a bright pop approach, with a voice that's smooth yet soulful enough to cut through the R&B-oriented arrangements. Margaret Becker joins Long on the first single, "How Long;" Bryan Duncan fans will also want to sample Greg's blue-eyed soul.

Various Artists Finding God's Will/Scripture Memory Songs Integrity

As usual in this series, the theme is simple—in this case, the listener is guided by 10 songs to Scriptures which will help them discern God's will. Producer Steven V. Taylor does a fine job of mixing and matching lush ballads, soulful pop and country; outstanding soloists include Tanya Goodman Sykes, Kim Hill, Lisa Beville and Chris Rodriguez. Integrity is back in form with this latest addition to its best-selling catalog.

Various Artists Sing for Joy Hosanna! Music

As it is so adept at doing, the label has put together another fine sampling of its praise and worship albums. The 16 songs are drawn from seven recent titles, including "I Belong to a Mighty God" & "How Great is Your Goodness" (Be Magnified), "Lift Up Your Eyes" (the Dove nominated Rejoice Africa) and "All the Earth" (Proclaim His Power). This title joins a body of samplers which have sold over 700,000 units to date.

Various Artists Sisters Warner Alliance

This album is an overdue acknowledgment of the unique relationship which women have through Christ. The songs not only celebrate friendship, but offer comfort and encouragement in times of difficulty and sorrow. Although not exclusively written by women, Mel Tunney, Babbie Mason, Tori Taff and Bonnie Keen contribute songs. Featured vocalists include Cindy Morgan, Kim Boyce, Christine Denté, Kathi Troccoli, Lisa Beville, Margaret Becker and Sandi Patti, with choral support on the title track from virtually every other well-known female singer in the industry. A conceptual and artistic winner!

Also Received

* Greg Chaisson It's About Time

Graceland/Frontline

Playing this sizzling, Texas-style blues/rock album leaves the smell of mesquite-flavored BBQ in the air! Chaisson, former bassist with mainstream rockers Badlands and recently a part of Die Happy, proves to be a terrific interpreter of several blues styles, as well as a fine blue-eyed blues vocalist ala Johnny Winter or Stevie Ray Vaughn.

Tourniquet Vanishing Lessons

Intense

One of Christian metal's premiere outfits breaks in new vocalist Luke Easter on a batch of their most accessible songs to date, which feature the always provocative lyrics of Ted Kirkpatrick and Gary Lenaire. A nod also goes to the band's tight and varied musical performances, highlighted by the terrific production of Jim Faraci.

Various Artists Extremely Loud

Guitar CD/Tape (and Book) Star Song
This is one of those forehead-smacking instances where other marketing folks probably go "why didn't I think of this first?" Although it is an extremely good collection, it's certainly not definitive (no Phil Keaggy, to name one MIA). But it's unlikely you'll see as good of a cross-label compilation again any time soon, with artists including Bride, Guardian, Whitecross, Shout & Tourniquet. And the book, which is the lynch-pin of the promotion, allows budding fret-flashers to dissect their favorite solos.

VIDEOS

On the Chart

Geoff Moore & The Distance Life Together ForeFront Home Videos

This cleverly-conceived mini-movie takes place in the year 2044, as Moore reflects back on a "Life Together;" what a comfort it is to know that in 50 years, Geoff will not lose the knack for serving up some real groaners when it comes to self-deprecating puns—but evidently, the "Hair Club for Men" goes under before he can make use of it. Between the "Old Geezer's" (his words) reminiscing, we're treated to several of Moore and the Distance's best-known clips, including "Evolution... Redefined," "When All is Said and Done" and "A Friend Like U." A fast-paced and fun 45 minutes.

Also Received

Prodigal Sons Ravival Metro One

It's as difficult to describe a rave or techno music as it is to capture its "of-the-moment" intensity on tape—but Prodigal Sons have done an excellent job. This 30-minute package is visually and aurally stunning, with the editing and special effects especially superb. The technological-based heart of the trio is conveyed without sacrificing a bit of humanity.

T-Bone The Redeemed Hoodlum

Metro One

Pro hoopster A.C. Green hosts a one-on-one session with one of Christian music's most dynamic new rappers. Green draws out tales of T-Bone's religious upbringing, which the rapper temporarily abandoned to run with a Latino gang in his native San Francisco. Now on the straight-and-narrow, T-Bone talks about his ministry to gangs, cons and school kids, stopping occasionally to offer several raps from his Redeemed Hoodlum disc.

SINGLE REVIEWS

Top Five

"My Life (Is in Your Hands)" Eric Champion Myrrh

Champion's sophomore release from Vertical Reality is filled with the silky smooth vocals and memorably lyrical and musical hooks that have become the trademarks of his music. This gently flowing mid-tempo track develops quickly and the edit version times in under three and a half minutes, making it a choice selection for AC airplay. AC

"Judgment Day" DeGarmo & Key Benson

Eddie and Dana's commentary about the serious issues facing us today is punctuated by the guitar licks and layers of keyboards that have become synonymous with the D&K name. Along with the album version, a radio mix is provided on the special rock radio-oriented CD single. Take yer pick! Rock

"We Can Live Together" Cindy Morgan Word

Morgan's distinctive vocal floats effortlessly over a hearty track in yet another fine selection from the A Reason to Live project. The cross-format potential of this song is high; watch for a top five showing in the CHR arena, where she is always a favorite, and a run toward top 10 AC. CHR/AC

"If I Know You" Out of the Grey Sparrow

Following the chart-topping performance of the first single from Diamond Days, this husband and wife duo are poised for yet another big AC and CHR hit. "If I Know You" rolls quickly through the first verse and into the chorus in less than a minute, and then ends less than three minutes later. It's lean and clean... a real winner. Top five peaks at both AC and CHR stations. AC/CHR

"Faith, Hope & Love" Point of Grace Word

Even if they didn't have three consecutive #1's and a Dove for New Artist of the Year in their trophy case, this would still be a smart add. But since they do have all that going for them, all the better! It'll run for top five AC and is also a good selection for CHR and Inspirational stations. AC/CHR/INSP

"Simply a Fanatic" Angie & Debbie Winans Frontline

Play this tune once and you'll have listeners turning fanatical over Angie & Debbie. The youngest of the Winans clan prove once again that they can keep up with their older siblings... and then some. CHR stations will be all over this one, but it's also a great choice for aggressive ACs looking to beef up their music mix during the summer months. CHR/AC

On the Chart

"Come Holy Spirit" Maranatha! Worship Band Maranatha! Music

This lovely praise chorus from the Standing on the Rock project will be a tempting selection for Inspirational stations and also for ACs who embrace Praise & Worship numbers from time to time. The instrumentation, including B-3, is quite contemporary, making it all the more palatable for AC stations. INSP/AC

"People Keep Writing Him Songs" Truth Integrity Music Roger Breland's gang returns to the airwaves with this, the debut single from the new project, The Equation of Love. Featuring lead vocals by Jason Breland and boasting the tight vocal harmonies of the other group members in the background, along with hot horns, it's definitely worthy of serious consideration by AC programmers. Their last few singles have seen some significant chart action, as could this one. AC

"Heaven of My Heart" White Heart Star Song

Mark Gersmehl and Rick Florian split vocal chores on this bombastic track from Highlands. While it's a bit too aggressive for many ACs, this project has been quite successful in garnering AC play on songs that wouldn't have darkened an AC playlist two years ago. Still, it gets a bit raucous during the vamp, which may prove to be inhibiting to some stations. CHRs will undoubtedly embrace it heartily. The provided edit shortens the intro and cuts the vamp short, getting you out over a minute sooner than the LP rendition. CHR/AC

"What a Place" Angie & Debbie Winans Frontline

The Winans girls' smooth vocals and uplifting lyrical content will make this a tempting selection for ACs, particularly those in markets where R&B flavored music does well. The glaring lack of a hooky chorus keeps the song from being memorable, despite a good performance and great production values. Two versions are provided on the CD single. I recommend the shorter edit... or better yet, opt for the much hookier CHR single. AC

VIDEOS

"Snake" the 77's

A vast array of unusual images float by in thick layers as Mr. Roe and the boys dish up a striking visual representation of their haunting single. One piece of advice: if you have a weakness when it comes to slimy belly-crawlers, you might want to refrain from viewing this one.

"Love Will" Michael James Reunion

The clean-cut, soft-eyed James energetically strums his guitar atop a tattered billboard proclaiming "LOVE" while black and white images of a young couple struggling to save their relationship weave in and out. While the story line chosen for the video deals with a horizontal relationship, the vertical implications inherent in the song are still apparent.
