Alliance Music to Distribute Seven U.S. Labels in the U.K.

ALLIANCE MUSIC, a new limited partnership made up of former Nelson Word UK employees Ian Hamilton, David Bruce, David Withers and others, was created to respond to what Hamilton called, "...the need for an alternative and fundamentally different distribution source in the U.K. and Continental Europe for Christian music."

U.S.-based gospel labels to be distributed by Alliance Music include Sparrow, Star Song, Warner Alliance, Maranatha! Music, ForeFront, Brentwood Music, and N' Soul. Integrity Music and Benson Music Group will continue to have their products distributed by Nelson Word UK, which distributes all Word label products, as well as those of Reunion Music Group. Alliance Music will also run a label of its own, and will be signing a number of U.K.-based artists over the coming months. Veteran British Christian artist Graham Kendrick has already been announced as the label's first signing.

Hamilton, who spent what he called "...23 very happy years at Word," said his primary concerns in creating Alliance Music were based on his experience with a company that, in his opinion, "...became a generalist, involved with a number of other non-music products, and lacked the focus that a specifically music-oriented company could bring."

Hamilton, who will serve as managing director of the company, had been with Word since 1970. He founded the Word Record Club and took over the headship of the company from his father Bill Hamilton in 1978. Joining Hamilton as co-directors of the company are Marketing Director David Withers, formerly sales and marketing manager for Word UK, and Product & Market Development director David Bruce, formerly A&R director for Word UK. Hamilton said the three boast 56 years of experience in the gospel music business between them, and are excited about the new possibilities that the company can explore.

Other key employees in the company include Office Manager Louise Robinson, Sales Manager Bill Williams, Music Production Manager Andy Greig (all three former Word employees), as well as Accountants Derek Hall and Jeremy Cook, who serve as non-executive directors.

Alliance Music products will be manufactured through the agency of EMI's Central Supply Group and distributed in

Warner Alliance Launches 'Sizzlin' Sounds'

WARNER ALLIANCE recently announced plans for what the company calls the largest, most comprehensive retail marketing endeavor in its history. Teamed with Sparrow Distribution, "Sizzlin' Sounds" will promote six summer releases from Warner Alliance as well as six other catalog titles.

Jim Sturgeon, director of sales at Warner Alliance, said, "We consider these summer releases to be among our most exciting ever, and it's only appropriate that we pull out all the stops with this Sizzlin' Sounds campaign. Hot music deserves a hot retail approach."

The campaign begins with the new project from Take 6, Join the Band, which ships to Christian and mainstream retailers simultaneously June 28. Warner Alliance will step up the effort July 18th as the various-artist Sisters album, Carlton Pearson & The Higher Dimensions Choir, David Mullen, and two Bethel Chapel projects ship. Campaign merchandise will also ship at that time, yielding nearly 1000

The company will also be working with Europe's leading Christian tour agency, Viva Art Music, to promote concert tours headlined by U.S. Christian artists, and supported by Britain's most promising new artists.

Hamilton stressed that the company's name refers to the formation of strategic alliances between existing organizations that will allow each to work to their strengths in mutually beneficial relationships. ■ merchant displays scattered throughout the United States, Canada, Australia, New Zealand, the United Kingdom, and South Africa.

The promotion is being supported multidimensionally. To inform retailers, Sparrow Distribution representatives are equipped with a promotional video geared to inform music department buyers, product sound samples, and a color brochure highlighting important promotional points. Mark Funderburg, vice president of sales, Sparrow Distribution, stated "After only 10 days, our road reps and telemarketing staff report back success beyond our original goals."

Once on board with the promotion, stores will receive Sizzlin' Sounds merchandising which includes a pentagon-shaped, spinner floor display to display the six featured products; a four color, 22"x28" poster designed to fit into all Sparrow "poster grips;" a 12-track $4.99 CD/$2.99 cassette Sizzlin' Sounds Collection, and an

Out and About...

- ForeFront artists Audio Adrenaline had a scare recently when the band suffered carbon monoxide poisoning while traveling on their bus to AtlantaFest. Upon arrival in Atlanta, band members were experiencing symptoms of poisoning including headaches and nausea, but were able to perform after a slight delay. "Said Laurie Anderson of True Artist Management, "We're very thankful that the rumors were exaggerated and that they are fine. We're also thankful for the short trip because if it had been longer there could have been more serious problems." The newest addition to AA tour support is a carbon monoxide detector for the bus....
- Geffen Records will make music history today when it enables users of an electronic information service to download for free, in broadcast quality, an entire, never-before-released song from a major artist. Aerosmith's "Head First" will be available for a limited time starting today via personal computer to the two million members of the CompuServe Information Service, the world's largest consumer on-line information service for PC users. Because of the nature of the event, Aerosmith is waiving all royalties for the song and CompuServe will waive connect-time charges....
- On June 11, more than 65,000 young people packed Cleveland Stadium in Ohio for what was billed as "The First Concert to Benefit its Own Audience" during the Northeastern Ohio Billy Graham Crusade. DC Talk and Michael W. Smith performed to the near capacity crowd before Smith introduced Graham as his number one hero to which the audience responded with a thunderous standing ovation. Promotion for the event involved spots on MTV and youth-oriented programs on The Fox TV Network to invite young people to the stadium. At the same time, WZAK and WJMO Jammin' 92—voted #1 Urban Rock Station by Billboard—co-sponsored the event. Crusade musical guests during the week included Larnelle Harris and Steven Curtis Chapman....
- Lightmusic, a Pittsburgh, Penn.-based Christian music TV program, recently produced its 2500th show on June 17. Lightmusic went on the air in 1982 in Pittsburgh, and now airs on 62 broadcast stations, four satellite networks and over 1000 cable systems in the U.S., Canada, South America, Japan, Russia and throughout Eastern Europe reaching a potential viewership of 60 million. Coincidentally, June 17 also marked the 25th wedding anniversary of host/producer Tom Green and his wife Candy....

Additionally, reprints of a Clarity magazine story about the Sisters recording session are available to retailers as bagstuffers, printed with "$2.00 off" coupons. Ads will run in publications such as Worship Leader and Charisma announcing the release of both Bethel Praise projects and a songbook will be available as a companion product.

Funderburg concluded, "Sizzlin' Sounds will prove to be a big winner this year for Warner Alliance and Sparrow Distribution."

At press time, Warner Alliance was working on finalizing an additional promotion that would involve hundreds of prize giveaways. ■

'A Current Affair' Interviews English, Jordon

SYNDICATED NEWS show "A Current Affair" aired a show June 20 that included a six minute segment on the affair between Michael English and Marabeth Jordon and the response of the Christian music industry.

Titled "Sins of the Singers," the segment included exclusive interviews with both parties involved. English said, "Nobody knows my heart. My heart has been torn apart. My family's torn apart. My daughter has been harassed at school by kids about her father. This is killing me, and I want everybody to see this is killing me... Am I sorry it happened? I've lost everything. Of course I'm sorry it happened. I'm sick about it."

Jordon commented that she knew the night of the Dove Awards that her career in Christian music was over. "I love Christian music, and I love the artists. I knew that I would never be back. That was a very difficult night for me. I just had the hope that people would understand that I'm not a bad person, I'm just weak. I tried to do the right thing. I failed and I'm sorry... I'm trying to believe that I will have a life again, that I'll wake up some morning and I'll enjoy my life."

When asked why he returned his Dove Awards, English responded, "I didn't feel like I deserved [the Dove Awards] because I messed up... All I know is that everybody makes mistakes... I just want to have hope for the future."

Though originally slated to run at 15 minutes, the English/Jordon segment (which also included an interview with Jordon's husband Paul Salveson) was edited due to the O.J. Simpson case. ■
